

$5000 IN STOLEN BONDS FOUND ON McNAMARA'S TIPS

Police Announce Man Who Was Slain Gave Information of Holdups of Two Postoffice Messengers.

BONDS RECOVERED AFTER THREE ARRESTS

Securities Part of $34,000 Worth Stolen at Jefferson City and $26,100 Worth Stolen at St. Charles.

The arrest of three men yesterday afternoon led to the recovery of $5000 in Liberty bonds stolen in holdups of postoffice messengers in St. Charles and Jefferson City and to the positive announcement by the police that Michael McNamara, ex-convict and safeblower, who was found shot to death in his flat at 2529 Glasgow avenue Monday night, had been giving information to city detectives about these holdups and had been aiding them in an effort to recover the bonds. This announcement, the police said, would leave no further doubt that McNamara was murdered by fellow gangsters who had learned that he was a "snitch."

The bonds recovered were six $500 bonds stolen in the holdup of George Williams at Jefferson City March 1 last, and two $1000 bonds stolen in the holdup of Willis Hornbush, negro messenger, in St. Charles, Feb. 4 last. In the Jefferson City robbery, $34,000 in Liberty bonds were stolen and in the St. Charles robbery, $26,100 in Liberty bonds were stolen at Jefferson City had been shipped by the St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank for a bank at Terra, Mo.

Gave Information of Holdups.
Allen Morris, 44, St. Louis is under indictment and out on bond in connection with the Jefferson City holdup.

The police today said detectives working on the mail robberies had been in close touch with McNamara for some time, and "at about a week ago he gave them information that all of the stolen bonds could be found in a certain house in St. Louis. They went there, they said, but arrived about half an hour too late to recover the bonds. About the same time the detectives were trying to find Morris, they said, and McNamara gave them information that Morris was in Chicago."

The men arrested yesterday afternoon were David Schwartz, 28 years old, who gave his address as 928 Hickory street and has a room at the Metropole Hotel, High and Morgan streets; Ben Grabinsky, of 5588 Pershing avenue, a jeweler at 609 Pine street, and Charles Marks, of 416 Laurel street, Grabinsky's business partner.

Two Arrested at Meeting.
Schwartz and Grabinsky were arrested at Fifteenth street and Washington avenue by Postoffice Inspector R. E. Ward and Detectives Kaiser, Wetzel, Heggenman and Kemp. Grabinsky and Marks were arrested earlier in the afternoon when it was learned that Grabinsky had been negotiating for the purchase of some of the bonds, which he said he did not know were stolen bonds. Grabinsky told of having an engagement to meet Schwartz at Fifteenth street and Washington avenue at 6 p. m. and said Schwartz had promised to sell him $15,000 worth of Liberty bonds for $19,000. He was permitted to keep the engagement and the Postoffice Inspector and detectives trailed him. When they saw Schwartz meet Grabinsky they closed in. The Postoffice Inspector drew a revolver and told them they were under arrest.

Grabinsky and Marks later were released. Grabinsky several days ago went to a friend employed by the Federal Reserve Bank and gave him a list of Liberty Bond numbers and asked him to look them up and see if they were all right. The bank employee found that the numbers were those of bonds stolen in the St. Charles and Jefferson City robberies. He notified the Postoffice Inspector and told Grabinsky the bonds were stolen.

Stolen Bonds at Pawnshop.
About the same time city detectives found $3000 in Liberty bonds bearing the numbers of stolen bonds at Henry Gallant's pawnshop at 1416 Market street. They learned the bonds had been left there by Grabinsky.

The detectives compared information with the postoffice inspectors and Grabinsky and Marks were arrested yesterday afternoon. Marks said he had been present when a man tried to sell the bonds to Grabinsky. He later identified Schwartz as this man.

Grabinsky told the police Schwartz called on him several days ago and

LA PIERRE FAILS TO APPEAR IN BANKRUPTCY CASE

Attorney, Who Expected Him to Respond, Says He Has No Idea of His Whereabouts.

Arthur F. La Pierre, president of the Lyre-Ola Manufacturing Co., 1304 Pine street, did not respond at 2 p. m. today when his name was called by Referee in Bankruptcy Coles as a witness in the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings pending against his company.

His attorney, Walter Davis, stated to the Referee that he had seen La Pierre recently and had expected him to be at the hearing today. He said that he had no idea of La Pierre's whereabouts.

Alva C. Trueblood, attorney for Alfred Bruho, receiver for the Lyre-Ola Company, stated that La Pierre was under subpoena to appear as a witness today, when the proceedings were continued from last Thursday.

The Federal Court bond of $4000, which Judge Davis had required of La Pierre to guarantee his presence in the court's jurisdiction for 10 days after the filing of the bankruptcy suit, expired last Sunday.

La Pierre is alleged to have a $2500 bond to appear in the Federal Court May 9 to answer to a warrant charging him with making a false affidavit in connection with his application for passage to Italy.

Miss Ruth Rowles, who was bookkeeper for the Lyre-Ola Co., testified that when the company recently sought loans at the bank, she presented at La Pierre's direction, lists of accounts which were furnished the bank as collateral, but which, she said, did not exist except as prospective sales.

JURY GIVES HOLDUP MAN 15 YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Alleged Accomplice in Robbery Pleads Guilty After Hearing Verdict; Gets Five-Year Term.

A sentence of 15 years in the penitentiary today was imposed upon Ollie G. Miller, 23 years old, of 1821 Market street, on a charge of high-way robbery.

The verdict of the jury was returned after selection of a jury to try Ernest Brandt, 20, of 313 South Third street, East St. Louis, for participation in the same robbery, was in progress. There was a hurried consultation between Brandt and his attorneys, after which it was announced that he would change his plea of not guilty to guilty. He then was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, which will be commuted to five years in the Boonville Reformatory because of his youth.

Fred Ellerbeck, 4814 Eason avenue, was tried Feb. 21 for participation in the holdup and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. The three were identified by Martin G. Hennessy of 5332 Page boulevard as the men who robbed him of $1000 at the intersection of Page boulevard and Montclair avenue.

BIG DEMAND KEEPS OFFICE RENTS HIGH

City Said Still to Be Suffering From Shortage of 5000 Homes and High Cost of Construction.

Joseph W. Hannauer, president of the St. Louis Real Estate Exchange, when questioned by the Post-Dispatch yesterday concerning rents in view of the approach of "moving day," May 1, said that tenants can expect no decrease in rents this year.

He says his general increases are being contemplated at this time, though in some classes of apartments owners are increasing rent as leases expire. Discussing some of the causes for a continued high level, he said:

"St. Louis still suffers from a shortage of about 5000 homes, creating a demand which is about 25 or 30 per cent in excess of the supply. There can be no relief until construction costs, governed largely by the prices of material and labor, decline. Under present high levels of these costs there is not enough building going forward to care for the natural increase in population.

WITNESSES TELL HOW MRS. CLYMER SHOWED DECLINE

Woman, Describing Dinner, Says It Was Necessary to Tell Mrs. Clymer What She Was Eating.

RELATIVES SUING TO BREAK WILL

They Allege Mrs. Clymer Was Incapable of Making Will When She Left $400,000 to Nephew.

Witnesses in the suit to break the will of Mrs. Eliza A. W. Clymer, trial of which continues today at Clayton, told of the decline of Mrs. Clymer from a brilliant social leader and keen woman of affairs to a condition of physical decrepitude and impaired mentality prior to December, 1916, when she made a will giving her $400,000 estate to Dana von Schrader, a nephew, now 20 years old.

The will is contested by brothers and sisters, who allege that she was incapable of making a will and was influenced.

Miss Elizabeth Creveling, of 405 Clara avenue, testified that in the latter part of 1912, at a dinner at the home of Miss Elsie von Schrader, it was necessary to hand every article of food to Mrs. Clymer and tell her what it was. One afternoon she stayed with Mrs. Clymer while Miss von Schrader went downtown and Mrs. Clymer asked her to put a dog's neck, which caused it to choke.

Text of Preliminary Reply From France on Island of Yap Mandate

WASHINGTON, April 14.—AFTER acknowledging receipt of the American communication, Premier Briand's note to the U. S. Government says:

"The memorandum, being addressed to Great Britain, Italy and Japan simultaneously, a reply cannot be made until after an accord between the Governments of the four interested Powers at the next meeting of the Supreme Council."

"I desire, however, to declare now that when the question comes before the Supreme Council of the representatives of France will approach the question with the most ardent desire to find a solution satisfactory to the United States. Your excellency knows that already the Government of the republic has done all that depended upon it to give its aid in this question to the American Government."

1,500,000 NEW WORKERS TO SUPPORT STRIKE OF TRIPLE ALLIANCE

ALLIES TO REPLY IN CONCERT TO OUR NOTE ON YAP

France, in Acknowledging Secretary Hughes' Note, Expresses Hope That Outcome Will Satisfy America

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 14.—France's reply to Secretary Hughes' note of April 4 regarding the Japanese mandate over the Pacific Islands of Yap is interpreted in official circles here as tantamount to acceptance of the principle laid down by the American Government that the United States has surrendered none of its rights in the former German overseas possessions.

Inquiry in diplomatic circles here today failed to develop any disposition to challenge the soundness of the announced position of the American Government, but it is indicated that before this can be done an effort will be made to ascertain whether the American Government's interest in the mandate is limited to the territories where the United States has special interests, such as cable facilities in Yap, or whether it intends to have a voice in each and every mandate.

The position of the Harding administration with regard to such difficult negotiations remains to be defined, but it was indicated yesterday by some officials who discussed reports from Tokyo that Japan might propose a conference here to take up various problems at issue between the country and the United States that an admission of the American contentions with regard to this country's rights in the former German territories properly should come first.

Count Shidehara, the Japanese Ambassador, called yesterday at the State Department and was in conference for a short time with Under Secretary Fletcher. His mission was not disclosed, but it was understood that it did not have to do with the mandate question.

HARDINGS TO PRESENT RADIUM TO MME. CURIE

Gift of American Women to Polish Scientist Mark Visit to U. S.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 14.—At the request of Vice President Coolidge, the President and Mrs. Harding have agreed to present to Madame Marie Curie, the Polish scientist, who is to visit this country next month, $100,000 worth of radium purchased by popular subscription and sold by the government for her use in research work along curative lines. The presentation will take place at the White House on May 20.

Madame Curie, who discovered radium in 1898, is coming to America primarily to investigate pitchblende deposits in Colorado, Utah, Pennsylvania and other states and her visit gave rise to the movement on the part of American women to supply her with a gram of radium, as her own supply has been exhausted.

The College Club of St. Louis is endeavoring to raise $2000 toward the purchase price of the radium for Mme. Curie.

GERMANY'S DEBT TO BE FIXED AT 130 TO 150 BILLION GOLD MARKS

Echo de Paris Says That if Germany Resists, French Troops Will Occupy Ruhr Basin.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, April 14.—Germany's obligation to the allies will be fixed at 130,000,000,000 gold marks and 150,000,000,000 gold marks by the Allied Reparation Commission, says the Echo de Paris. The newspaper adds, the exact figure will depend upon the solution of certain questions still being considered.

In case Germany resists settlement, the newspaper declares, it is accepted by the allies that France will recall two classes of recruits to the colors, and proceed to occupy the Ruhr basin. This district includes the most important coal mines and industrial plants in Western Germany.

Members of British Federation of General Workers Decide to Give Aid to Transport, Mining and Railway Men in Walk-out.

LLOYD GEORGE URGES USE OF BALLOT

Premier Suggests That Union Leaders Submit Their Contentions to Voters and Promises Government Would Do Same.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, April 14.—Resolutions expressing solidarity with the miners and the Triple Alliance in their present movement were adopted tonight at a meeting of the Parliamentary Committee of the Trades Union Congress, the national executive of the Labor party and the Parliamentary Labor party, held at the House of Commons.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, April 14.—The Federation of General Workers, representing 1,500,000 persons in more than 100 industries outside the Triple Alliance, decided today to support the Triple Alliance in its strike in the interest of the striking miners.

A conference held this morning between Prime Minister Lloyd George and a delegation of officials of the Triple Alliance was concluded without two hours without any apparent progress.

Lloyd George made a plea to the labor men today that they resort to the ballot, suggesting that they put their case to the nation and saying that the Government would do likewise with its case and let the nation decide the issues.

The railway men and the transport workers went to Downing street, where Lloyd George and other members of the Cabinet met them to hear their case. Their considerable errand was to deliver in person the answer to the Premier's request of last night that the miners set forth specifically the reasons for their rejection of his proposals for adjusting the dispute between the miners and the mine owners.

When Harry Goslin, for the transport workers, and Thomas, for the railway, had finished their presentation of the miners' case and had outlined their reasons for deciding to starve it by sympathetic strikes, if necessary, Lloyd George appealed to them to consider whether reason was on their side. If so, he asked why they had not availed themselves of the ballot box.

"Starvation is not your only weapon," said the Prime Minister. "You have exactly the weapons you had before, the weapons of civilization—persuasion, argument and reason. You can leave it to the nation to decide. You have your plan, so we have ours. Put it to the nation and we will put ours to the nation. If the nation decides that your plan is the right one, why should you starve your people in order to achieve something which you can achieve by reason if reason is on your side?"

"If reason is not on your side, why should you force the nation, by starving it, to surrender to unreasonable demands?" asked the Prime Minister. "This plea, however, does not appear to have had effect. J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the railway, declared he could see no prospect for the reopening of negotiations."

Thus the situation, early this afternoon, appeared unchanged, and the outlook gloomy.

Figures printed by the Daily Graphic purport to show that if the Triple Alliance strike should actually result and should last the week, it would result in 8,000,000 persons being thrown out of employment. Manifesto Issued.

A manifesto issued last night by the Triple Alliance, in which the body emphatically supports the miners' claims, contends that such reductions in the miners' earnings "no trade union in the past ever accepted," and declares that, if accepted, it would be a disgrace to trade unionism of the world.

It continues: "The miners' federation fully realize that the present position of the industry is as bad as it has ever been in its history. This

Husband Says Marriage to Mother of His Sons Was Not Valid—New Wife Pretty.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Herbert Thornton Andrews, a stockbroker of 20 Broad street, is living in the Rensselaer apartment, 2848 Hudson boulevard, Jersey City. In the same apartment lives Mrs. Maud Augusta Andrews, 43, whom he married in Portland, Me., June 17, 1912.

Her two boys—John, 8, and Harley, 6—and Mrs. Esther Marie Tannal Andrews, 25, who became Mrs. Herbert Thornton Andrews in Green which, Conn., Jan. 24, 1921. With this unusual domestic gathering resides Mrs. Sarah McGulr Andrews of St. John, N. B., mother of Mrs. Andrews took Mrs. Andrews there the day he married her in Greenwich. Mrs. Andrews No. 1 was formally introduced. She stayed on, although she is reported to have been ousted from Mr. Andrews' room and she is sleeping in an alcove bedroom. She has told friends, aware of her amazing position, that she remains only because of her boys and also because she is confident her husband will tire of the pretty young woman who has supplanted her in fact and by lawful ceremony of marriage.

Mrs. Andrews made no attempt to approach his domestic situation. He may be the beneficiary of the unusual days affecting prosecution for bigamy in the State of Connecticut where he wedded Mrs. Tannal last January. No prosecution for bigamy may be brought in that State unless it be accompanied by evidence of the consummation of the marriage within the boundaries of Connecticut.

BILL FRAMED TO KEEP HAPSBURGS OUT OF AUSTRIA

National Assembly Expected to Enact Measure Barring Former Royalty.

By the Associated Press.

VIENNA, April 14.—A measure barring the former King of Austria from one to five years' rigorous imprisonment, has been forced through the National Assembly by the combined pan-German and Social Democratic vote. Passage of the measure by the National Assembly is considered assured.

The original language of the bill, as framed by the Socialists, specifically named the Hapsburgs, but the measure was modified so as to stipulate all persons similarly situated. The bill also provides imprisonment for anyone aiding, abetting or harboring such persons.

A clause added to the measure makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by six months to one year in prison, for any person to use publicly a former title of nobility or to permit himself to be so addressed in the presence of a third person. The clause is aimed at the growing renewal of the use of titles in social intercourse.

DOG AVENUES DEATH OF PAL

By the Associated Press.

DULUTH, Minn., April 14.—Since his canine pal was killed recently by a street car, a Scotch collie dog stands guard at a certain corner each day, leaps high as cars speed by and often manages to grasp the trolley pole rope in its teeth, pulling the pole off the wire and stopping the car.

Efforts of the dog's master and a crew to persuade the dog to cease the practice have been of no avail. The animal probably will be shot.

Jersey City apartment. Their young son, Harley, is crippled, but is recovering the use of his limbs under surgical treatment.

The last addition to the Andrews household is a very pretty girl, slim, blonde and attractive in appearance and manner. She was a telephone operator and later a stenographer in a Pittsburgh brokerage office with which Andrews did much business.

These two women living in the same pretty though small apartment with the man who has married both of them without getting any legal separation from his first wedded wife, do not give any outward sign of friction.

Each of them has a small automobile, one very like the other. Each of them drive about in the neighborhood, and each is known as Mrs. Andrews. Both are represented by neighbors who are on speaking terms with them to be very nervous though both struggle to repress evidence of it.

The neighbors make no effort to repress their curiosity and the story of them without getting any legal separation from his first wedded wife, do not give any outward sign of friction.

POMERENE URGES RATIFICATION OF COLOMBIAN TREATY

Ohio Senator Declares Pact Should Be Approved as Matter of Justice to That Country.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Ratification of the Colombian treaty as "a matter of justice" to Colombia was urged in the Senate today by Senator Pomerene, Democrat, of Ohio.

Devoting much of his address to a history of the events which led to the revolt of the Colombian province of Panama, Senator Pomerene declared that the course of President Roosevelt with regard to those events was indefensible "either in the sight of God or of man."

"What explanation can be made to history for intervening to prevent Colombia from reclaiming that which was her own, and to permit the organization of a new republic under the protection of our ships of war?" the Ohio Senator asked. "Of one thing I am quite certain. We would have pursued a different course if Colombia had been even a third-rate power."

Stand Not Justified. "Nowhere in the Constitution or under the statutes of the United States or under international law or in the forum of good conscience or good morals," he added, "can we find authority which will justify our standing by in the case of revolution with our warships bristling with guns, and preventing a sovereign country from quelling an insurrection, and then while a new government is organized under our protection make a contract with the new possessor, the new sovereign, to get that which we want on terms that will suit us."

"I regret that it is not within my power to blot out of the memory of man, and for all time, the methods we used in securing title to the Canal Zone."

Kellogg Quotes Roosevelt in Attack on Colombian Treaty.

Ratification of the Colombian treaty would not be keeping faith with Theodore Roosevelt, Senator Kellogg declared yesterday in opening debate for those opposing the pact in the Senate.

Acceptance of it, even as amended, Senator Kellogg asserted, would be a "pusillanimous act" and "a shadow on the brightest page of the history of American accomplishments."

The Minnesota Senator quoted a message he received in 1917 from Mr. Roosevelt, saying that ratification of "this infamous treaty" would set a dangerous precedent.

"It makes precedent," Mr. Roosevelt was quoted as saying, "for some successor of Wilson to pay at least as large a sum apiece to Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Hayti and Santo Domingo for who has been done to them recently and also to Chile for our insolent and improper treatment of her in connection with the Alsop claim."

Letter Placed in Record. Senator Kellogg also placed in the record a letter written by Col. Roosevelt in 1917, in which the former President declared the "crux of the matter is as to whether we ought not to have recognized Panama."

"If we did badly," Mr. Roosevelt wrote in reference to Panama's recognition, "we are in honor bound now to restore both Panama and the Canal Zone to the bandits from whom they were then severed. Mere

9 DEAD, MANY HURT IN TORNADO IN TEXAS

Large Part of Business and Residence Sections of Melissa Wiped Out.

By the Associated Press.

MELISSA, Tex., April 14.—Citizens of Melissa today set about affording relief to a large number of families made homeless yesterday by a tornado and storm which swept this little town causing the death of eight persons and the injury of many more. Five of the eight dead are negroes. Five persons are injured, possibly fatally, while more than 50 received less serious injuries. A number of the injured are in hospitals at McKinney.

It had not been decided early today whether it would be necessary to appeal for outside help for the storm sufferers.

The tornado struck the town from the southwest and cut a swath northeast, demolishing virtually every building in the business district and razing many houses.

Fire broke out soon afterward. Rain made the roads leading to town almost impassable and the force of the wind tore down telegraph and telephone wires that resulted in isolation as far as communication was concerned for some time.

Witness Tells How Mrs. Clymer Showed Decline.

down in physical and mental health late in life. Depositions of Mary E. Tanquary, a maid in the home of Otto von Schrader at Washington, D. C., and Mary Mulroy, a maid at the Great Southern Hotel, Gulfport, Miss., where Mrs. Clymer died, were read.

Mrs. Tanquary told of Mrs. Clymer's frequent visits to the Otto von Schrader home and her friendliness for the family. Mary Mulroy told of Mrs. Clymer wanting to give her front room to her nurse and take the nurse's back room.

Dr. Frank R. Frye testified that Mrs. Clymer became his patient in 1914 and was under his care at intervals thereafter. He said there was progressive degeneration of the tissues of the brain, causing progressive mental impairment. He diagnosed her ailment as senile dementia, for which there was no cure. He gave it as his opinion that she was of unsound mind after 1914 and that when the will was drawn she was of unsound mind and incapable of knowing what she was doing.

Dr. Frye, on cross-examination, said he did not believe Mrs. Clymer from 1910 to 1914 was capable of transacting business without assistance, but she was able to distinguish friends and understand simple matters. He did not think she was capable of composing letters. He was shown a letter which she had written during that period to George and Dana von Schrader. He said these did not indicate an unsound mind, but neither were they proof of a sound mind, because insane persons sometimes wrote brilliant letters or wrote courteous letters automatically. He did not think she could have continued writing such letters without assistance.

Otto E. Winton, who was Mrs. Clymer's chauffeur from 1915 to 1917, testified that when he asked her where she wanted to go she would say: "I don't know. You ought to know." If he drove downtown she asked when they were going to get to the park.

One day she had him stop at a grocery and buy some bananas and began eating them, "skins and all." He took them from her.

Sometimes she had him stop in the park and set for an hour talking to the birds. One day when a maid assisted her to the automobile she slapped the maid's face and said, "Now get back there."

When he took her to department stores she usually came out at the wrong entrance and wandered around looking for him. Once he found her at Union Market.

Lost Much of Power of Speech. Dr. Robert B. Armstrong, of Charlevoix, Mich., testified that he was called in 1913 to Waukegan, Mich., to attend Mrs. Clymer for apoplexy. He found that she had lost much of the power of speech and thinking was difficult for her. His opinion was that the condition was permanent. He admitted that he had received a check for $1000 which he supposed was signed by her. Any way, he cashed it. When questioned, he declined to deduce from her sending the check whether she was sane or insane.

The case for the plaintiffs was closed at 2:10 p. m. Mrs. Clymer died Feb. 18, 1920, at the age of 74. The suit was filed by Miss Eloise von Schrader and Mrs. Julia Hodgson, daughters of Mrs. Clymer, Otto E. and Lieutenant-Colonel Allyn von Schrader, brothers of Mrs. Clymer, and two children of another brother, Frederick W. von Schrader. The defendants are Dana von Schrader and his parents, George and Alice von Schrader, of Bridgeport, St. Louis County.

FORMER RECORDER DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Dr. S. H. Woodrow and Lee Meriwether Will Officiate at Services.

The funeral of Charles F. Joy, former member of Congress from the Eleventh District, and more recently Recorder of Deeds, will be held at 3 p. m. Saturday at an undertaking establishment at 3621 Olive street. Members of the Elks and of Occidental Masonic lodge will attend the funeral. Lee Meriwether, exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, will deliver a funeral oration, and the Rev. Dr. S. H. Woodrow of Pilgrim Congregational Church, will conduct religious exercises. The body will be cremated.

Joy, who was 71 years old, died at 5 p. m. yesterday in Mullinphy Hospital of cancer of the throat.

Three weeks ago, because of the serious character of his illness, Joy resigned the office of Recorder of Deeds, and his wife was appointed by Gov. Hyde to the office until the election of November, 1923.

Joy came to St. Louis in 1875, after his graduation from Yale University, and entered the practice of law. He was elected to Congress as a Republican in 1892, and for four terms subsequently, making his period of service at Washington 19 years. During his first term in Congress he was married to Mrs. Washington M. Rye, then the widow of a San Francisco physician, whom he met in Washington.

In 1904, Joy was elected Recorder of Deeds, and was re-elected at subsequent elections. Last summer he appointed Mrs. Joy an indexing clerk, to enable her to become familiar with the work of the office. Joy was known for his companionable qualities, and had an unusually large circle of friends. On the occasion of his seventieth birthday, Dec. 11, 1919, a testimonial dinner in his honor was given at Hotel Statler, and was attended by 250 persons, including heads of banks and large business concerns, and men prominent in politics in both parties. Telegrams of congratulation were received on that occasion from leaders of both parties in Congress.

Recorder and Mrs. Joy lived, until his removal to the hospital, at the Bonair Hotel, 4500 Pershing avenue.

WOMEN'S DEBATE DELAYS REPORT OF COMMITTEE

Meeting & Succession of Voting, Reconsidering, Amending and Speaking on One Point.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN SCOPE OCCASION

Recommendations of Industrial Program Committee
Held Up by All-Afternoon
Discussion.

By MARGUERITE MARTYN.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CLEVELAND, O., April 14.—Women voters in convention yesterday forewent the right to criticize masculine congressmen and conventions for obstructionism. Many of the 500 delegates spent one whole precious afternoon debating, reconsidering, amending, retracting, voting and annulling their votes on a single point, a point so small that it was early lost in the shuffle and never recovered, were in the mood last night to sympathize with men who in desperation resort to steam roller tactics in order to get things accomplished.

Only they did not resort to steam roller tactics. That is one point in their favor. Most of the obstruction came from the Pennsylvania delegation. When have we not Pennsylvania in that role before? It has been removed all along that the Pennsylvania delegation intends to make trouble when the women-industrial platform is announced; that it is actually organized to oppose the league's going on record as favoring trade unionism of women, a minimum wage and eight-hour day. It has, at the same time, been declared that with the convention so generally in sympathy with these planks—the ground having been felt out—this one delegation's objections could not have much effect.

The Industrial Committee was due to report at yesterday afternoon's session. So were three other committees. But the entire program had to be postponed to give place to a wrangle over the change of a few words or lines or sentences, nobody now remembers which, in the preamble of the report of a sub-committee of the National Committee on possible changes of scope and methods of future policy of the league.

Proposed Changes in Policy.
Now, the changes proposed, although set forth in a long typewritten statement by Mrs. F. Louis State and verbally explained in a marvelously elaborate analysis by Miss Ludington, also of the National Board, may be stated simply "to increase the membership and to educate the membership in citizenship without consulting or obtaining the backing of the membership."

There was no objection to the policy so far as the observer could determine from the muddle. The objection began when Mrs. John O. Miller, State chairman of Pennsylvania, raised the question as to whether minor changes in wording had been made in the preamble to the statement on policy, and offered in the form of amendments by another woman who appeared to be a stickler for just the right word, should be considered after all the amendments had been read in full, or "seriatim." A motion was made to consider them seriatim. A division had to be called for to determine the result of this vote. Some 500 delegates had to be counted, one by one. Then when this was concluded a few more remarks from the lady from Pennsylvania convinced some of the delegates they had not known what they were voting on.

Ballot After Long Speeches.
A motion was made to reconsider and this motion was carried, but not before a dozen long and tortuously prolix speeches had been made in elucidation of individual opinions. Well, at last they voted again, first on reconsideration, then on the motion, and the oral vote seemed to convince the chair that the motion which previously had been carried, this time had lost. But the chair could not be certain and asked if there was a demand for a division. The response to this question was not to be determined by the oral methods, so there was the convention in the position of asking for a division on a division.

At this and several other points, Mary Garrett Hay, official parliamentarian (due to her pose of brusqueness, it is easy to associate with the words, "boss" and "steam roller")—stepped into the fray and settled matters by sheer force of voice and presence.

It was at one point in the tangle moved and carried to table the troublesome preamble and proceeded to other business and only a few minutes later it was voted to bring it back. Miss Hay was called upon for a ruling on this and although she declared it was not customary and without precedent so far as she had observed in her long experience in watching and sitting in judgment

Mrs Catt Makes Stirring Appeal for End to War

Suffrage Leader Tells Women: "Everybody Wants Wars Prevented; Everybody Is Doing Nothing."

By the Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, O., April 14.—Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, venerable New York woman suffrage leader, scheduled to speak at the mass meeting of the National League of Women Voters' convention last night, threw her "set" speech away and begged the women voters to end all war.

In 15 minutes Mrs. Catt held her audience spellbound by the intensity of her appeal.

"The people in this room tonight could put an end to war," she said. "There isn't an audience in the world that could applaud him who talks of world peace. Everybody wants it and everybody does nothing."

"I am for a league of nations, a Republican league or any kind," she continued. "The Republicans are in. I believe it the duty of everyone who wants the world to disarm to compel action at Washington."

"Our country is not judged by its parties—it is judged as a nation. But why don't we do something. I ask you, is there anybody anywhere with a sense of spirit who is not trying to arouse America? No. We are as stolid and as inactive as if we did not face the greatest opportunity in history."

A thousand women closely followed every word of the white-haired woman who had led the winning fight for their national rights and upon proceedings in Congress, to recall a matter that has been tabled without a decent period of time intervening.

An opinion was offered by Mrs. McCulloch, the lawyer from Evanston, to the effect that as soon as other business had intervened, a tabled motion could be recalled, and it was agreed several wholly unrelated topics had intervened, and so the motion was brought back for another reconsideration. Although always heretofore to be relied upon for a decision, Miss Hay almost hesitated to arouse America? No. We are as stolid and as inactive as if we did not face the greatest opportunity in history."

This company asked $61,666.81 for the work in a bid opened by the St. Louis County Court yesterday. The county will furnish the cement needed.

The James A. Parkinson Construction Co. of 2327 Carter avenue, bid $66,106.77, and the Louis Rich Construction Co. of Plainview, Ark., asked $65,837.45. The county had estimated the cost at $58,110.27. The contract provides for an 18-foot concrete paving, and the contractor must grade the road.

The St. Charles road, which is 12.7 miles long, is being repaved with concrete at a total cost of $590,000. Federal aid of about $20,000 a mile will be received, as well as some State aid. The County Court is acting as contractor on 10.7 miles, and has let the work out to subcontractors. The St. Charles Bridge Co. agreed to subscribe for $100,000 of the county's $2,000,000 road bond issue if work on the western two miles was rushed.

Two months ago the county advertised for cement bids. The Missouri, Continental and Atlas Portland cement companies submitted identical bids to supply 38,000 barrels for the 10.7-mile stretch at $2.67 a barrel. The market has since declined and the price was changed to $3.47 a barrel. The Missouri Portland Cement Co. was given the contract because its plant in the county was nearest the job. The cement for the two-mile stretch will be obtained at the same price.

Sections of the St. Charles road are now closed to traffic, which must detour by way of the Natural Bridge or other side roads. Some of the sections are being graded and some paved. The county hopes to have the reconstruction completed by next autumn.

SOME "TEA UP" WHILE OTHERS "TEE UP" AT UNIQUE GOLF DINNER

Riverview Links "Fever" Symbolized at Affair Where Only Nineteenth Hole Is Missing.

Golf fever, which has raged in epidemic form among the members of the Riverview Club since the construction of a new course was begun there recently, was responsible for a unique dinner given there last night. Guests found the dining room decorated in a manner to suggest a scene on a golf course. Upon entering they were instructed to "get their clubs" which consisted of knives, forks and spoons. Later reports said that certain fortunate members then drew apart to "tee up," while others merely "teed up."

At any rate, regardless of spelling, the dinner proceeded to play. Lettuce and olives were found on the approaches to the holes and proved a welcome change for certain tired golfers, who had been accustomed mostly to weeds and sand traps in that connection.

At the hole itself a sign stated that all players could expect a "birdie" there; and so it proved, the "birdie" being a squash. Surrounding the table were decorations suggesting bunkers, water hazards and other imitations of golf topography. Dessert consisted of a vanilla ice cream golf ball stymied against a chocolate tree stump, and the golfers demonstrated what some of them had previously held; namely, that the only successful way to play such a shot is to eat the stump.

The launched nineteenth hole was, of course, missing, but most of the players said they had grown accustomed to its absence, while others, retreating to various secluded corners with their hip pockets, said things could be worse.

PRESBYTERIAN COMMISSIONERS FOR ASSEMBLY ELECTED

Overtures Reducing Age at Which Ministers May Receive Sustenance Funds Approved.

Commissioners to the Presbyterian General Assembly at Winona Lake, Ind., in May were elected yesterday at a meeting of the St. Louis Presbytery in the West Presbyterian Church, Maple and Maryville avenues, as follows: The Rev. Dr. R. S. Calder of Lindenwood College, the Rev. Dr. R. C. Williamson of Tyler Place Church, the Rev. S. W. Farr of Berea Church (negro), Elders J. N. Brown of the First Church, Charles W. Logan of the North Church and James N. Dobson of Kings Highway Church.

Overtures were approved reducing the age at which ministers shall be eligible to participate in sustentation funds from 70 to 65 years, calling for a survey of the homes for aged, convalescents and orphans conducted by the church with a view to more efficient administration, and that the expense of the general assembly be reduced.

It was reported that the number of young people's societies in the presbytery had been increased to 45. The Rev. N. L. Euwer, assistant at the Second Church, declared for the formation of more week-day organizations for boys under the leadership of men who "still can twirl a baseball, enjoy a hike and handle boxing gloves."

STEEL COMPANY IS SUED AS BANKRUPT

Proceedings Against Warren
Steel Castings Co. Due to Spite Work, Official Declares.

Two petitions in involuntary bankruptcy were filed yesterday afternoon against the Warren Steel Castings Co., which has a plant at 3400 Maury avenue, and normally employs about 500 men. The claims against the company total about $56,000.

Mr. M. Broad, secretary of the company, said today that the company was solvent; that it would resist to the limit all attempts to have it declared insolvent, and charged that the suits were "spite work," resulting from the expulsion last August of John P. Pero Jr. from the office of vice president of the company, and the abrogation of his contract as general sales agent.

Pero is one of the petitioners, and his claim is the largest. He declares he advanced $38,300 cash to the company, which he loaned to the same petition, the claim of a claim for $57,613.11, both on notes.

Detective Has a Claim.
In the other petition, Joseph Ople, who operates a private detective agency, lists a claim of $2500 cash which he states he loaned to the company. Two other claims contained in that petition are those of the E. E. Squier Co., $307.99, for merchandise, and the Charles J. Weber Plumbing & Heating Co., $49.

Charles E. Hayden, former president of the Night and Day Bank of St. Louis, is president of the Warren company, and W. A. Kammerer is treasurer.

"Pero," said Broad, "is the son of a man who is well known in the iron trade, and who is general manager of the Missouri Malleable Iron Co. in East St. Louis, has a stable reputation. The son made certain representations to us concerning his (the younger Pero's) ability to represent our product. We considered his proposition, and the arguments which he presented, and on that basis made him vice president, and awarded him a contract to sell our entire output, for a commission on the gross sales. He didn't come through. Last August the board of directors had a meeting and asked him to resign, which he did. They also abrogated his contract."

"He never advanced any money to this company, and he'll have a hard time proving that he did. I don't just understand the Ople petition, but I am convinced there is some connection between it and the other. Ople never loaned this company any money. He might have loaned some to an official of the company. The other claims are on accounts which are in controversy."

The six petitioners charge acts of bankruptcy, in that they allege the company preferred other creditors to themselves. They set forth that the concern owns 13 acres and buildings at 3400 Warren street which are worth upwards of $125,000. Broad said the value of the plant was approximately $146,000. It is now running with a force of about 125 men, he said.

Pero, when told what Broad had said, made an absolute denial. "Anybody who knows anything about that company knows that I took it when amounted to virtually nothing and built it up to its present state," he said. "The company failed to pay me the commissions that it owed me. Finally, in order to get at least a partial settlement of what was due me, I consented to break the contract, as the contract itself will show. The statements that I didn't attend to business are ridiculous."

INAUGURATION OF KIEL FOR THIRD TERM NEXT TUESDAY

Public Exercises in Rotunda of City Hall to Follow Ceremony in Aldermanic Chamber.

The public inauguration of Mayor Kiel for his third term will take place at noon next Tuesday in the rotunda of the City Hall, following a similar ceremony, in compliance with law, in the chamber of the Board of Aldermen.

The principal speeches will be made by the Mayor and by President Alois of the Board of Aldermen. The Rev. Dr. M. Rhodes, 85 years old, of 3179 Waterman avenue, will pronounce an invocation. He is the former pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, where the Mayor was once a Sunday school pupil.

The oath will be administered to the Mayor, to Comptroller Nolte and to the 14 newly-elected members of the Board of Aldermen, by City Register Charles Neumann, chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, and it has been decided to spend $347 on the ceremony, of which $100 will be for flags and bunting, $100 for flowers and $147 for the services of a 20-piece brass band.

Mayor Kiel and William Sacks, banker and office building owner, who was chairman of the Advisory Committee of the Mayor's recent campaign, left at noon today for Washington. The Mayor, who will return in time for his re-inauguration, said he was going away for a much-needed rest. Office seekers have taken much of his time since the election last week.

MISTRIAL IN CASE BASED ON RAID ON HOUSE

Jury Unable to Agree After Counsel for Woman Objects to Dismissal.

A mistrial was declared yesterday after a jury in Police Court had deliberated two and one-half hours without reaching a verdict in the case of Frances Harding, charged with maintaining a disorderly house at 4173 Enright avenue.

Before the case went to trial Associate City Counselor Evers, after a conference with Sergt. Kelly, head of the cleanup division, recommended that it be dismissed because of lack of evidence. Defendant's attorney objected on the ground that he sought to have his client vindicated by a jury. Evers stated that he was convinced that trial of the case would be a needless expense to the city because there was not sufficient evidence, and then announced he would enter a nolle prosequi. Judge Mix refused to accept it because the jury had been asked for by the defendant and she was entitled to a jury trial. Evers then declined to prosecute and left the courtroom.

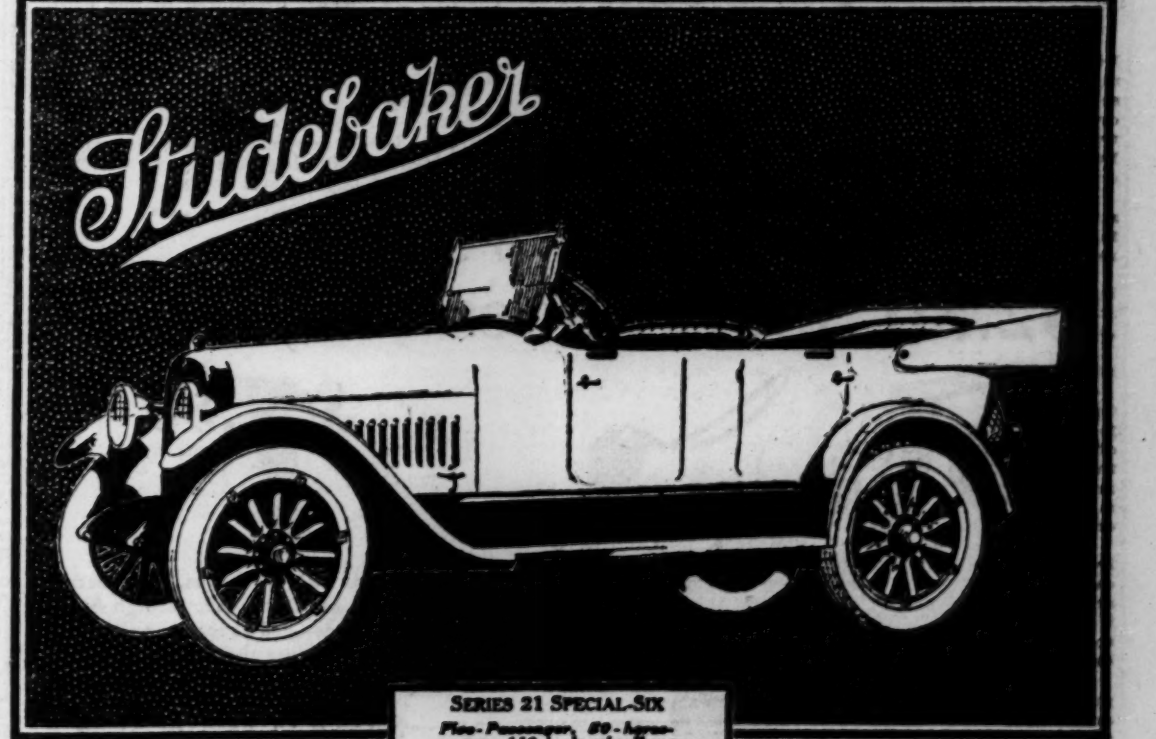

A temporary recess was declared while Judge Mix telephoned to City Counselor Dues. The latter ordered Paul A. Gayer, Associate City Counselor, to try the case.

Sergt. Kelly testified that on March 28 he raided 4173 Enright avenue and arrested Frances Harding and another woman and a man. Neither the other woman nor the man appeared in court yesterday. Kelly said he had received numerous complaints about the house and that members of his division had watched it for some time. Chief of Police O'Brien was present, the raid, but he did not appear in court.

After Judge Mix had discharged the jury when it was unable to reach a verdict, Evers again recommended that the case be dismissed. Judge Mix refused and Evers again entered a nolle prosequi. The attorney for the defense then stated that he was willing to have a nolle prosequi entered in the case. Judge Mix, however, refused to accept it and set the case for April 27. The jury was then discharged.

DEMURRER TO MANSLAUGHTER INDICTMENT IS SUSTAINED

John Graff Held Not Responsible for Death of George Schwarz.

Circuit Judge Hall yesterday sustained a demurrer to the indictment charging John Graff, caretaker of an apartment building at 6642 Kingsbury boulevard, with manslaughter in connection with an automobile accident Feb. 13 last at Meramec street and Minnesota avenue, when George Schwarz, 46 years old, of 4022 Nebraska avenue, was killed.

Testimony showed that two automobiles, one driven by Graff and the other by Frank Reinhold of 4841 Tyrolese avenue, collided, and both cars were hurled upon the curb. Reinhold's machine struck a fire plug, while Graff's car knocked down a lamp post, which struck Schwarz, fracturing his skull. The demurrer filed by Graff's counsel stated that the evidence was insufficient to show Graff responsible for the accident.

75,000 MEDALS UNCLAIMED

An appeal to former soldiers to apply for Victory medals, which were ordered for them by Congress in appreciation of their services, has been issued by Col. John H. Parker, commandant of Jefferson Barracks, who urges that those entitled to the medal apply immediately at the recruitment station in the Old Custom House at Third and Olive streets.

While about 15,000 men have obtained their medals, there are still about 75,000 in this district who have not applied for them.

Friday Is Bargain Day

WHO first established this does not interest us, we only know that generation after generation of women have gone shopping on Friday, expecting unusually good values in their purchasing.

They have grown more discriminating in their choosing, however, more exacting in their demands. Confidence is placed upon performance rather than words. Consequently, Friday finds them seeking out the place where past experience has taught them to find the most reliable as well as the most economic purchases.

Our Friday sales are largely attended by a public that has learned from experience that our bargains are of a worthwhile sort. Our headlines may not be over-emphatic, and we do not quote comparative prices—but the values are of a sort that recommend themselves.

FARMERS DISCUSS INVESTIGATION BILL

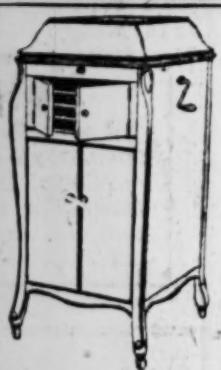

House Resolution Calls for Inquiry on Agricultural Bodies Relative to Price Control.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 14.—The resolution introduced in the House by Representative Gould, Republican of New York, calling for an investigation by the Committee on Agriculture of agricultural organizations and associations relative to the control and price of food products, came in for considerable attention today at the American Farm Bureau Federation conference which is formulating a legislative program to be laid before Congress. Whether formal action would be taken was not indicated.

The Gould resolution declares that recent declines in agricultural products "have excited the fear and anxiety of our farming population and may cause them to be misled into the hasty adoption of plans or the formation of associations purporting to provide a means of protection against loss but actually discouraging production and arbitrarily establishing and sustaining the price through means ultimately injurious to both producer and consumer."

The committee would be instructed under the resolution to make an investigation of any such organization receiving appropriations from the Treasury or which makes application for financial or technical assistance from any department or bureau of the Government. It would be further directed to report its findings together with any recommendations necessary "to protect the public interest and provide unhampered food production and further to recommend such congressional or executive action as might remedy any existing condition."

Farmers allied with labor under the People's Reconstruction League also were meeting here today, but it was said this conference had had no direct connection with the legislative conference.

Adolph Horwitz, 4 years old, of 1124 Pine street, was taken to the city hospital last night by his mother, Mrs. Ida Horwitz, to be treated for the removal of particles of glass that he swallowed when an electric Christmas tree bulb broke as he placed it in his mouth in play.

GIRL'S SCREAMS SCARE A BURGLAR AWAY

Seven Men Robbed in Holdups—Restaurant, Fruit Store and Grocery Also Held Up.

A negro awakened Violet Keith, 12, daughter of Robert L. Keith, 5910 Michigan avenue, today at 3:50 a. m. in her bedroom by stumbling over a chair. She screamed and the negro ran out a rear door which he had left open and was pursued a short distance by Keith, who found later that his trousers containing $3 were missing. The negro is believed to have been the one who recently has been prowling barefoot in South St. Louis homes.

Three Men Held Up by Two in St. Louis Park

Two men with revolvers held up Edward Stewart, 1214 Madison street; Frank Wall, 5999 Vernon avenue, and John Holz, 2208 North Twelfth street, last night at 9:40 o'clock in St. Louis Park, St. Louis avenue and Twelfth street, taking $14 from Stewart and a pencil and fountain pen from Holz.

Thomas Cochran of Augustine, Kan., was robbed of $55 and a watch by two negroes at Gratiot and Hawk streets at 10 p. m. They struck him with their revolvers and he was treated for scalp wounds at the city hospital.

Negroes Rob Fruit Store.

Two negroes entered the fruit store of Joseph Passafiume at 521 North Tenth avenue at 9:30 p. m. Passafiume did not understand their commands and called his son, Antonio, from a rear room. Antonio took $71.35 from the cash register and handed it to the negroes, who ran out.

William Shaw, 59, of 4101 Indiana avenue, a bricklayer, was robbed of $150, at Twentieth and Walnut streets, at 12:15 a. m., by two negroes, who knocked him down when he resisted. He was taken to the city hospital suffering from scalp wounds.

Two men compelled Miles Turnbaugh, 1336 Chouteau avenue, and Adolph Thompson, 918 Chouteau avenue, to go into an alley near Twelfth street and Chouteau avenue at 9 p. m. They took a pair of gloves from Turnbaugh, but overlooked $53, which was in the same pocket under the gloves. Approaching pedestrians frightened the robbers and they fled without having searched Thompson.

Restaurant Held Up.

Two men with revolvers entered the restaurant of William Reed, at 511 Clark avenue, yesterday at 3 p. m. Ernest Steinway, 1414 South Fourth street, the cook, ran from the restaurant, and Howard Potts, 602 Walnut street, a waiter, was compelled to hold up his hands while the robbers took $10 from a cigar box. Potts said that one of the robbers was cross-eyed, and later the police arrested two suspects, one of whom was slightly cross-eyed. Potts said that he was one of the robbers.

FIVE PERSONS INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

National Cafe Proprietor Held After Machine Runs on Sidewalk and Hits Post.

An automobile driven by Charles Connors, proprietor of the National Cafe, 117 North Sixth street, while going east in Pine street at 11:45 o'clock last night, ran onto the sidewalk at Eighth street and collided with a post. The other occupants were a man giving his name as Charles Willis, 31 years old, a broker, of 2916 St. Vincent avenue, and Mrs. Mabel Stanley, 26, of 4617 Page boulevard.

All three were taken to the city dispensary. Willis was suffering from scalp wounds and bruises. When told that he was going to the city hospital, he counted out $275 from his pockets and gave Mrs. Stanley $275 of it to keep for him. The police, however, decided to keep both Mrs. Stanley and the machine, and locked her up for further investigation.

Suffering From Alcoholism
Connors was pronounced suffering from alcoholism and bruises, and was held a prisoner at the city hospital. His only explanation of the accident was that he "lost control" of the automobile. The National Cafe has been visited by the police many times, and numerous arrests have been made there.

At 6 o'clock last night Eugene Hayes, 14 years old, of 3030 St. Vincent street, was hit by a laundry truck in front of his home, and suffered a fracture of the right leg and internal injuries. William Cox, the driver, and other witnesses said the boy backed off the sidewalk in front of the truck.

Girl Hit by Auto
Miss Melta Schang, 17, a telephone operator, of 4038 Westminster place, stepped off the sidewalk into the street to board a car on Easton at Burd avenue, at 9:54 p. m., and was hit by the eastbound automobile of Mrs. Agnes Mendenhall, 4039 Easton. Miss Schang said she was reaching for her pocketbook for her car fare, and did not see the automobile. Mrs. Mendenhall said she did not see the girl. She put her in the automobile and took her to the city hospital, where Miss Schang was found to be suffering from scalp wounds and cuts on both limbs.

Charles A. Jost, 3248 Park avenue, driving south on Twentieth street, at 3 p. m. yesterday, collided with a truck being driven east in North Market street by Charles Petri, 2027 South Ninth street. Petri was thrown into the street, and suffered internal injuries. Jost said he had swerved his car to avoid being hit by a westbound automobile.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do what which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with a "dark brown" face, a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face. Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 50c.

FORMED BY MILK PRODUCERSTemporary Officers of $500,000 Marketing Corporation Named at East St. Louis Meeting.About 1000 members of the Southern Illinois Milk Producers' Association attended a meeting today of stockholders of the Southern Illinois Cooperative Marketing Association, held in the auditorium of the East St. Louis City Hall to complete the formation of the corporation. Temporary officers were elected and a committee on constitution and by-laws appointed at the morning session. D. A. Brooks, president of the milk producers' association, served as chairman, and N. E. Baum, secretary of the producers' association, was chosen temporary secretary of the corporation.Application for incorporation papers will be forwarded to Springfield tomorrow. The capital stock of the marketing association will be $500,- 000, and one-half of that amount has been subscribed.The stockholders in the co-operative marketing association are milk producers who supply milk to the distributors in St. Louis. The association will purchase or lease plants in the district in which the stockholders reside, for the handling of milk and the making of milk products. They state that through the system they expect to be able to supply milk to the consumer at St.
Louis, either direct or through distributors, at a great saving, as much of the loss now incurred by the distributors will be absorbed by the marketing association, which will turn surplus milk into cheese, butter and other products, without having to pay for hauling and other expenses.R. C. Fotts of the Illinois Depart-stockholders, saying the department

POLICE COMMISSIONER OFFERS REWARD OF $100 FOR SLAYER

Philip H. Brockman Makes Announcement in Connection With Shooting of Student.

Philip H. Brockman, purchasing member of the Board of Police Commissioners, today sent a letter to Chief of Police O'Brien in which he personally offers a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of a person who on April 13 shot and killed John A. Keating, 23 years old, Washington University student, in the oil filling station at 1043 North Grand avenue, where he was employed at night.

Persons within the Police Department recall no previous time when a member of the Board of Police Commissioners has offered a personal reward for the arrest of a criminal.

Brockman also mailed yesterday a letter of sympathy to the young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Keating of Topeka, Kan., assuring them that the Police Department would make every effort to arrest their son's murderer. Keating was shot when seated at a desk by persons who apparently entered the place to rob it.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

School Building Fund.

A recent letter in the Post-Dispatch asks, "What has become of the $3,000,000 voted last year for new buildings?" The $3,000,000 bonds for new buildings were voted November, 1915, and not last year, as stated by Mr. Palmer. The Board of Education has expended the proceeds from the sale of these bonds for the following new buildings and school sites: Buder School, Elvest Junior High School, Cupples School, Dewey School, Hamilton School, Mason School, Roe School, Scruggs School, Six School, Adams addition to site, Hartford street school site, Clarence and Carter avenues site, Richard Murphy playgrounds, special No. 9 site.

The publication of these facts will correct the erroneous inference contained in the letter relative to the school bond funds.
F. L. WILEY.

Appreciation.

Our Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Our honored dead have been returned to us and laid to rest in the soil of the beloved land for which they gave their lives, and the American Legion Committee in charge of the arrangements for the funeral desires to advise you of the appreciation of the American Legion members for your work in bringing the matter to the attention of the public in order that all might properly pay tribute to the hero dead.

GEO. M. HAGEE,

Chairman Public Mass Funeral Arrangements Committee.

The Cat.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Your editorial "Mercy to the Dumb" was gratifying to humane workers, who were making an effort to eliminate suffering and cruelty among our voiceless friends.

"Too much cannot be said in defense of the cat. Let me say a word in defense of the cat. It is not generally known, but there is a United States Government money appropriation for the purchase and maintenance of cats in the Post-Office Department, where mice and rats are liable to be destructive to mail material. This money is converted into cat meat, through which medium the animals in the Government employ receive their recompense for service rendered. Those who give these things a thought believe our animal friends are entitled to consideration and kindness. Pass the word along that this is "Be Kind to Animals Week." JULIA PAULING.

To the Front.

Why doesn't St. Louis put the daylight saving plan into effect, like New York, Chicago and other sensible cities did or will do? St. Louis motto is "To the front." Why not live up to this motto?

HEALTH.

Can't Stand It.
I am a South St. Louis taxpayer. I have a house which was taxed by the city for $5000. Last week I went to the city hall to find out how much more was added to its value, and found it was $5000. Now, along comes the State with a 90 per cent more, which will make it $11,500—its full value. Then there comes a school tax. My taxes for 1921 figure out about $189, compared to $125 last year and about $110 year before last. What will happen to rent by fall? The people will surely be raised again. The new buildings that are going up are only to be for the rich. If this keeps on many of us will have to go somewhere else to live. We can't stand it much longer.

TAXPAYER.

Coal and Rents.

The coal dealers advise the public to buy their coal now, while the price is down. Very good so far. But what about the landlords and agents of dwellings, flats and other property? What assurances have the tenants that their rent will not be raised after they have laid in their fuel? Renters know that the greater part of property owners have a tendency to value the rent when the tenant has a coal in. There should be some way to prevent the property owner from raising the rent on tenants after they have laid in their fuel; then the people would buy their fuel early in the summer.

W. L. S.

Foolish Reasons.

There have appeared several silly arguments against daylight saving. If there is any person whose uncle does not own a motion picture house or airframe who can put forth a reason that has at least a particle of common sense in its construction, let's have it. Such foolish reasons as "I don't want to lose that hour's sleep in the morning" is not only ignorance of the daylight saving plan, but an absolutely false conception of it. If the person or persons who have tried to argue against a measure that has been unanimously supported by petitions of the office workers in various office buildings would look to see how other progressive cities elsewhere have treated it, they would not let St. Louis stand back.

A CITIZEN.

OUR SURE-THING POLICY.

The Knox resolution has been trimmed up to fit the view of President Harding with regard to our peace status. It declares "a state of technical peace," as Mr. Harding describes it, reserving for the United States "all of its rights, powers, claims, privileges, indemnities, reparations or advantages under the treaty of Versailles."

So far, we have declined to ratify the Versailles treaty, but Mr. Harding's plan is to "engage under the existing treaty, assuming, of course, that this can be satisfactorily accomplished by such explicit reservations as will secure our absolute freedom from inadvisable commitments and safeguard our essential interests."

In short, we claim the rights, privileges, reparations and advantages of a treaty we have refused to ratify and we are to establish this claim by engaging under the treaty to accept only so much of it as is found to be to our own selfish interest—all the rights and advantages it offers, but none of its duties and obligations that are distasteful to us or limit our freedom of action at all points.

What an attitude for the great republic—demanding all the advantages of a treaty, with only the obligations that are agreeable and do not limit its freedom to serve its own interests! What becomes of our boasted honor and integrity and magnanimity—that noble mission of America to exemplify national virtues? Like the selfish, spoiled school boy, we won't play unless we have everything our own way. Asserting the limit of narrow selfishness, we expect other nations, when we insist, shall subject their wills and interests to our will and interest.

The test of the course is its application to another nation not so strong or rich or influential as the United States. If a weak nation should attempt in this way to mold all the other nations to its own will and interests—to claim all the fat and reject all the lean, to destroy the League of Nations accepted by 42 other nations, to claim the rights of a treaty which it had refused to ratify and to insist that the treaty must be modified to suit it or it would not accept it at all—it would bring upon itself the outspoken scorn and contempt of all nations.

Our strength gains consideration for our selfish, destructive course, but can we escape the unspoken contempt and dislike of the nations over which we attempt to dominate? How long can we play the game of might and sham with success, or even impunity? How long can we direct our dealings with other nations on the basis of internal partisan hatreds, revenges and advantages?

How long can a nation retain any respect or confidence or friendship of other nations when its foreign policy is directed, not by honor or equity or enlightened common interests, but by internal partisan motives and factional compromises? The curse of party politics lies heavy upon us when it leads us into such a morass of dishonor and inconsistency and selfishness as the vaguely outlined course adopted by President Harding indicates.

What has become of Mr. Hughes? Have he and his clearly defined policy of ratifying the treaty and the covenant with reservations as the only honorable course been ground to powder between the President and the Senate oligarchy?

A MANDATE FROM WASHINGTON.

The Missouri Legislature, which meets in special session on or about May 1 to enact legislation to carry out the long-anticipated State good roads program, has become the recipient of a mandate from no less an authority than the President of the United States.

Unless the party in power at Jefferson City chooses deliberately to repudiate the recommendation of its national head, expressed in his late message to Congress, it must enact laws at the coming session which will require the expenditure of State road funds by the State itself, through a State commission or commissioner. And it must prescribe a program which calls for a unified State system that will best conserve, in the shape of permanent roads, every penny allotted by the State to road expenditure.

What has President Harding said on the subject? In his first message he declares that:

"Congress cannot justify a mere gift from the Federal purse to the several states to be prorated among counties for road betterment. Such a course will invite abuses which it were better to guard against in the beginning."

But the President's part in the matter is not limited to mere admonitions. He has advised Congress of the emphatic need of new limitations on Federal allotments of road funds to the states. "Large Federal outlay," he says, "demands a Federal voice in the program of expenditure. . . . Congress ought to prescribe conditions to Federal appropriations which will necessitate a consistent program of uniformity which will justify the Federal outlay."

This means that if the Missouri Legislature enacts a program of legislation which prorates funds among the counties and fails to provide for economic expenditure, necessary maintenance of roads which have absorbed the State's funds and reasonable uniformity of construction—in short, a scientific program as against a pork-barrel program—it will almost inevitably forfeit the $35,000,000 allotment for the next 10 years which it is expecting from Washington. Only the refusal of Congress to act on the strong recommendation of the President—an utter impossibility—could avert such a loss.

It is not only the manifest sound policy and leadership of the President, therefore, which the Republican majority at Jefferson City would be going against if it should fail to do its full duty in behalf of a State road system at the coming session. It would be cutting off a free gift from the Government amounting to more than 50 per cent of the funds it expects to raise from the State. The duty of the Legislature is more than apparent. It is inescapable.

THE COST TO ST. LOUIS.

State Auditor Hackmann professes to be well satisfied with the Equalization Board's work. It is not perfect, he concedes, but he insists it is the best report ever made. He acknowledges that the Board of Equalization indulged the County Assessors in the latter's peccadillo of flouting the law—not only indulged them, but abetted their lawlessness by splitting the difference, so to speak, between the estimates fixed by those Assessors and the returns required by law.

An examination of the assessments as approved by the Board of Equalization in comparison with those of the Tax Commission is of interest to citizens of St. Louis. The Tax Commission's valuation total, excluding St. Louis, is $3,800,150,120. That of the board is $3,447,034,900. The difference is $353,125,220. The Tax Commission's St. Louis assessment is $1,060,287,257. That of the board, $1,001,530,065. The difference is $58,757,202. Those figures show plainly that the Board of Equalization reduced the commission's assessment outside of St. Louis by almost six times as much as it reduced this city's assessment.

It should be borne in mind that St. Louis property heretofore has been assessed practically at 100 per cent of its value, while outside of St. Louis assessments have been notoriously below their real value. It was to end this vicious practice that the Tax Commission was created by the Gardner administration. It was thoroughly understood that the discrepancy between dishonest assessments in the country and honest St. Louis assessments could not be wiped out at once. The work had to be done gradually. The Tax Commission, accordingly, proceeded conservatively. Its assessments did not purport to approximate 100 per cent valuation. In some counties, according to expert realtors, the assessments were ridiculously low. But however far they fell short of actual values, the Tax Commission's assessments were a step in the direction of honest realty taxation in Missouri.

Under the circumstances, then, if any reduction anywhere was to be made, St. Louis manifestly was entitled to it. Had the Board of Equalization had either the desire or the courage to obey the law and be fair, it either would have allowed the Tax Commission's assessments to stand, or, if determined on reduction, St. Louis should have been given the benefit of it by reason of its known honest returns and the known dishonest returns throughout the State. Instead of shaving off $58,000,000 (to use round numbers) from the Tax Commission's St. Louis total, the board should have cut down this city's valuation by $350,000,000.

On the face of the returns and in view of the uncontested facts it is clear that, if the St. Louis assessment had been reduced $350,000,000 and the Tax Commission's figures outside of St. Louis allowed to stand, the people of this city would then approximately be on a tax-paying parity with the rest of the State. However, the legal way would be to fix all assessments at cash value and reduce the taxation rate accordingly.

This is the burden imposed upon St. Louis by "political assessments," in which the Board of Equalization concurs. As a party to this injustice, the Board of Equalization is without standing in law or equity.

At the bottom of her riotous cap of sugar prosperity, Cuba is now finding the bitter drag.

ENFORCEMENT OF AGREEMENTS.

When Secretary of Labor Davis declares in favor of a law requiring the sides of a labor agreement to live up to their contract he indicates a need that has long been recognized. To assume that such a law is needed is not to libel one side or the other of the perennial labor question. If violations of agreements on the labor side are cited as instances of the need of a law it is because, under the existing status, only the property-owning employer can be held responsible for damages in the violation of a contract. There is no reason to assume that the employer, with equal opportunity to evade responsibility, would not be as ready to do so if he found it to his interest.

That a law of the kind indicated by Secretary Davis would be unfeasible is by no means established. Men who break a contract by striking cannot be compelled to work. But they can be punished for not keeping an agreement if the State determines that such violation would be illegal.

There can be no defense, either in morals or necessity for not living up to a voluntary agreement. And when it becomes essential to the life and welfare of the State to require, by the infliction of penalties, the fulfillment of such agreements, there is no reason why legislative measures should not be taken to require it.

Because of the refusal of the Republican majority in Oklahoma's House of Representatives to make necessary appropriations, that State, with millions in its treasury, is unable to meet current expenses. Such action on the part of Oklahoma Republicans is one of many reasons why the Solid South is solid.

AN UNFINISHED SONG.

DAYS go, swept in our laughter;
Days go, labor-merged, not of life;
Looms nearer the blank hereafter;
Hopes falter and fears are rife!
Mays usher and follow December,
But in none has life come true
And in full, worth while to remember—
Days go and the years accrue!
And still the wild weeds that we dare not
The dreams that are always dreams,
The mutual glowings we share not,
The youth that no joy redeems Make up the true life that our hearts know.

But Tommie whispered in alarm!

The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

This column is designed to reproduce without bias the latest comment by the leading publicists, newspapers and periodicals on the questions of the day.

OUR INTEREST IN THE UNIVERSE.

From the New York Globe.
R. EINSTEIN does not know as much about psychology as he does about mathematics, or he would not have insisted, as he did upon his arrival here, that his theories of time and space "hold no interest for the average man." The average man's interest in anything is harder to weigh than the most remote stars, but it can be guessed roughly by the amount of room that the newspapers are compelled to give to it. The Einstein theory has been travestied, ridiculed and vulgarized, but for at least a year it has held a prominent place upon a crowded stage. The average man is interested in time and space, as he is interested in religion. At the back of his head, he often wonders what life is and what the universe is, and why. Great religions have sprung up because teachers here and there have affected to answer the riddle. Prof. Einstein is too modest to claim a solution, but he has thrown light (albeit a best light) upon evidence on which the average mind may chew to some advantage. If the universe is finite and time is finite, as it seems they may be under the Einstein theory, one's views as to the purpose and significance of creation must be different from what they would be if the contrary were true. In short, although the average man may not be able to understand Prof. Einstein's theory, he is tremendously interested in the consequences of it, just as he is interested in the intellectual results of the Newtonian theory of gravitation, although for the life of him he could not accurately define the theory.

OPTIMISM IN ENGLISH GLOOM.

Philip Gibbs in Harper's Magazine.
IN many ways the social spirit of England has been more changed in the last six years of history than in the six centuries preceding them. . . . If England goes down in decay, so will all Europe, and even America will not be safe. If the British Empire, dependent still on England as the axle wheel of its progress, breaks up or falls apart, there will be a shaking anarchy in its ancient possessions—in India, Egypt, Africa—before which the horrors of the last war will be but playful things. If the English people take the road to revolution or anarchy, life will be safe for democracy or in any way secure of life, and white civilization, as we now know it, and like it, will be doomed. Other men, not white, will press forward over our ruins and decadence. But that, by the grace of God and the spirit of a great race, shall not happen yet, unless madness overtakes all sanity, which must not happen. There is in English character still an intuitive, inarticulate wisdom. In spite of all the modifications caused by war, there is a solid common sense, a sense of compromise and the middle way, which belongs to centuries of English tradition and is not yet deadened. The passion of the extremists leaves the main body of English men and women cold as ice. Discontent, distress, exasperation lead to violent speech, but rarely to violent action, within the heart of England untouched by the fire of the Celtic fringe. In the past centuries there have been worse times than now, but the people have suffered them with patience, with hard resolution, with high and noble valor. They have always taken the middle way. I think they will now. Out of present trouble England will emerge with her old spirit of stolid resource and energy.

MISSOURIANS TOLD TO KEEP POLITICS OUT OF GOOD ROADS

Connecticut Highway Engineer Warns Ralph Committee Against Efforts to Appear Counties.

SAYS COMMISSIONER
SHOULD BE JUDGE

Legislative Road Inspectors to Begin Homeward Swing
After Spending Few Days
in New York.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 14.—

The Ralph delegation of Missouri

Legislators investigating road building and organization of State highway departments in Eastern and Middle Western states, heard some very straight talk from Charles J.

Bennett, State Highway Commissioner of Connecticut, yesterday. It dealt largely with the effect of politics on the road building game, with "passing the buck" and with attempting to satisfy everybody.

Bennett said it "simply can't be done," and told the Missouri delegation that if the State highway department is to be reorganized along political lines, and if Missouri tackles the job of spending $60,000,000 for roads with the intention of seeing that every local community in the State received an equal portion of money there would not be much in the way of roads to show for the money when it was spent.

Bennett has been Highway Commissioner in Connecticut eight years.

He first was appointed by a Democratic Governor and twice has been reappointed by a Republican Governor. He is a believer in one Commissioner controlling the department and in appointing a commissioner of three or more members, though he said there would be no objection to an advisory commission. "The power has to be with one man," he said. "If the commission would not be objectionable and might be helpful under some circumstances, but it should not have any power. The final decision should be lodged in one man, who is responsible, and should be held responsible.

"The evasion of responsibility is a great pastime in American Government and there is no place it can be more extensively and more dis-cussibly practiced than in road building. I mean what is commonly known as 'passing the buck.' With a commission of three or more there is always present the opportunity for each of these to 'pass the buck.' Each and all three can avoid making decisions or can unload responsibility on the others at each other.

Note of Caution in Discussing Harding's Message in England

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, April 14.—

ONLY two of the big London

The reason, it is pointed out,

may be traced back to the edimost prominent newspapers at that time expressed keen disap-

Meighen Government Sustained

By the Associated Press.

OTTAWA, April 14.—Early this morning the House of Commons voting under closure rules sustained the Meighen government in its shipbuilding program and granted the administration an interim supply vote for carrying on public expenditures for the first part of the present fiscal year. The vote stood 103 to 79 for the government. The division in the House brought to a close one of the most important sessions of the Parliament since 1913, when the opposition, obstructing the plan of Sir Robert Borden to give financial aid to the British navy, kept the House in continuous session for two weeks.

The present battle began on Monday when the opposition objected to an item of $5,330,000 in the annual estimate for the completion of the government's shipbuilding program.

Late Tuesday, after continuous fil-lustering, Premier Meighen gave notice that the closure would be applied the following day.

In his closure motion the Premier declared the request of the government for an interim supply vote, and this was also passed.

LINDLEY AND BEAZELL LEAD FOR DRY AGENT

The Rev. W. C. Shupp and J. L. Babler Are Supporting Stanberry Man for Federal Plum.

By the Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Dr. E. R. Lindley of Stanberry, and B. F. Beazell of Chillicothe, appeared today to be leading the large field of candidates for the position of State Prohibition Director of Missouri to succeed the Democratic incumbent, S. P. Howell.

Claims of all the aspirants were canvassed in a lengthy session held yesterday by the Missouri Republican delegation in Congress to pass on State patronage matters. Members of the delegation said today that endorsements were being solicited for about 10 men for the prohibition directorship, but that the meeting adjourned without agreement on any one name.

Lindley's name was presented with the endorsement of the Rev. W. C. Shupp of the Missouri Anti-Saloon League, and of Jacob L. Babler, Republican national committeeman of Missouri. Shupp, who is now in Washington, is quoted as having told members of the delegation that Babler was a "much misunderstood man." Though the meeting was productive of spirited discussion as names were brought forward for various Federal jobs, the word was passed out today that it had been entirely "harmonious."

Spencer Made Spokesman.
All inquiries were referred to Senator Spencer, who was designated by the Congressmen to be their spokesman in bringing Missouri's patronage claims to the attention of the administration. Spencer said the delegation was getting together. He left the inference that the scarcity of plums for Missouri to date had been due to the failure of the delegation to act as a unit. Hereafter he said there would be unified action. Spencer said the delegation was with him in his opposition to the appointment of C. C. Madison as Federal District Attorney of the Western Missouri District.

The conference began with a lunch given by Spencer for the representatives and lasted until 5:15 in the afternoon. All the Republicans of Missouri delegation were present except T. W. Hukriede, who was ill. L. C. Dyer of St. Louis, who was recently "rolled" by the delegation from the chairmanship in favor of Roscoe Patterson, was there part of the time.

Hughes Talks Turkey.
Near the end of the meeting State Chairman Hughes was called in. He is said to have "talked turkey" to the members in telling them that they would have to forget their differences, get together and produce something for the faithful in Missouri. The position of Spencer as "spokesman" of the delegation is naturally his by virtue of the rule of senatorial courtesy which gives a Senator the power of blocking appointments which do not suit him. Discussing today Spencer's fight on Madison, who was named by the President at the instance of E. Mont Kelly of Kansas City, members of the delegation said that Madison's friends by raising an issue against Spencer had created a situation which made Madison an impossible candidate for the job. Most of the Congressmen originally endorsed Madison, but the sentiment prevailed at the caucus yesterday that the delegation should now stand back of the Senator.

The delegation determined to try to land an assistant Postmaster-Generalship for Missouri. Among the candidates for this job are L. W. Kelly of Moberly, formerly postmaster of that city; Ben F. Self of Moberly and E. C. Fletcher of Kansas City, a former railway mail clerk.

FINE FOR CARELESS DRIVING AND ABUSIVE LANGUAGE

James Flynn, 4954 Cottage avenue, was fined $75 for careless driving and $25 on each of three peace disturbance charges in Police Court today.

On March 28 his automobile struck the rear of an automobile owned by Clarence Shaffer, 1447 Dodder street, parked on Olive street near Garrison avenue. Mrs. Theresa Wagner, 1447 Dodder street, and her daughter, Dorothy, declared that Flynn used abusive language.

Elmer Norman, 3014 Wisconsin avenue, an automobile dealer, was fined $50 for careless driving, $10 for having no tail light and $10 for having no headlights burning. A policeman testified he stepped into the street to arrest the speed of Norman's car and was compelled to jump quickly to avoid being run down. The car was wrecked against the curb at Eighth street and Chouteau avenue and Norman arrested.

Francis Walsh, 3402 Arlington avenue, was fined $50 on a charge of careless driving in knocking over two ornamental lamp posts and a telephone post on Taylor avenue near Gibson avenue.

Scholastic Meets

High School League Announces
Annual Games Will Include
Three Classes.

Competition in the annual High School League track and field event will be divided into three classes hereafter, as a result of the new provisions made at a league meeting last night. Heretofore the contestants were either juniors or seniors;
but because of the large attendance of younger students, the "midget" class has been established. This class is open to youths who are 15 years old or under on the day of the meet and no taller than five feet two inches. The events open to them will be the 50-yard dash, 75-yard dash, 75-yard low hurdles, running high jump, running broad jump, six-pound shot put and 440-yard relay (four men) race.
The points scored by the midgets will be scored in the same manner as those of the juniors and seniors.
5, 3, 2, 1.

Another radical change made in the track and field activities is in limiting the number of events which a student may enter. Whereas in previous meets it was not unusual for an athlete to engage in four or five contests, hereafter no one can enter more than one track event or more than two field events. If he competes in a race, only one field event is open to him.

Discus Thrown Dropped.
Other minor alterations were in eliminating the discus hurl from the program and making a runner who had not qualified in the preliminaries eligible to run in the relay final. The discus was abolished because of the danger of injury to the public.

Two dual meets have been arranged for Saturday, while a third one will probably be scheduled. Francis Field at 9 a. m., while McKinley and Yeatman compete at the same time, probably on the Yeatman athletic field. Cleveland is endeavoring to secure a meet and has several prospects.

The Solon-Webster affair is usually one of the best scholastic meets of the year and attracts more attention than any of the other dual competitions. Solon, however, has not shown much in practice and lost heavily through the last two graduation games. Coach Roberts has a number of his 1920 letter men and consequently the county squad is favored.
The program will include the discus, although Solon will not develop any men in this event for later meets.
McKinley's showing in the indoor games at the Coliseum almost insured Coach Castleman a victory over the North End squad. But there is no doubt that McKinley will suffer more through the passing of the one-track event ruling than any of the other schools, as it has more all-round stars, such as Kinsey, Boken and Johnson.

WAITE ELECTED BASKET

CAPTAIN AT OKLAHOMA

NORMAN, Ok., April 14.—Ed Waite, Oklahoma City, junior engineer and veteran basketball center at the University of Oklahoma, was elected captain of the 1922 basketball squad by the eight letter men yesterday. Waite has worked in the jump position for two seasons and has come in for honorable mention in the all-Valley sections both years.

Waite was the individual high point man for the Sooners in the 1921 high school race. He shot 73 goals from the floor and 113 free throws in 28 games. Waite played in 17 full games and had to miss a part of one on account of being put out for personal fouls. The big center is more than 6 feet tall and weighs more than 250.

MUNICIPAL BOXING BOUTS

TO DECIDE FIVE TITLES

Five classes will have new municipal amateur champions following the boxing carnival to be held at the South Broadway Athletic Club tomorrow and Saturday night. The A. A. recognizes no local amateur title-holders, as George Puchta, Peewee Kaiser, George Hutch, Harry Ricks and Mike O'Donnell have become professionals since their victories last year.

Judge Robert Hall has ordered the entrants to appear at the club tonight to weigh in. A failure to appear means that the appearance money will be forfeited and put in the general athletic treasury of the Municipal A. A.

SPOKANE MAN BIDS FOR

BRITTON-MITCHELL BOUT

SPOKANE, Wash., April 14.—An offer of $12,500 was telegraphed to Tex Rickard, boxing promoter, at New York, late yesterday for the Jack Britton-Pinky Mitchell welterweight bout, scheduled for July 4, by J. H.
Brenneman, wealthy Spokane lumberman and owner of the Alan Rickard base court d'Alene, Idaho. Twenty-round fights to a decision are permitted in Idaho.

BROWNS AND INDIANS

TO ATTEND GATHERING

Members of the Browns and Indians will be guests at an informal meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce tonight. Owners Phil Ball of the Browns and James Dunn of the Cleveland club, Bob Quinn, Tri-Speaker and George Slater will be the principal speakers. Six autographed baseballs will be given away.

Carter Meets Maroney.

Lloyd Carter will meet Mike Maronney in a wrestling bout at the Standard Theater tomorrow night.
Carter last week defeated Joe Klinger ringside handily. The bout will be held after the regular show.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

INTOLERABLE PREJUDICE.
Though prejudice masters the average mind,
We fancied that sterner impartial,
And free from all bias, one surely would find
The learned successors of Marshall.
And therefore we grieve when we read of a Judge
Who works himself into a fury
And declares a mis-trial in a high handed style
When he finds there's a blond on the jury.

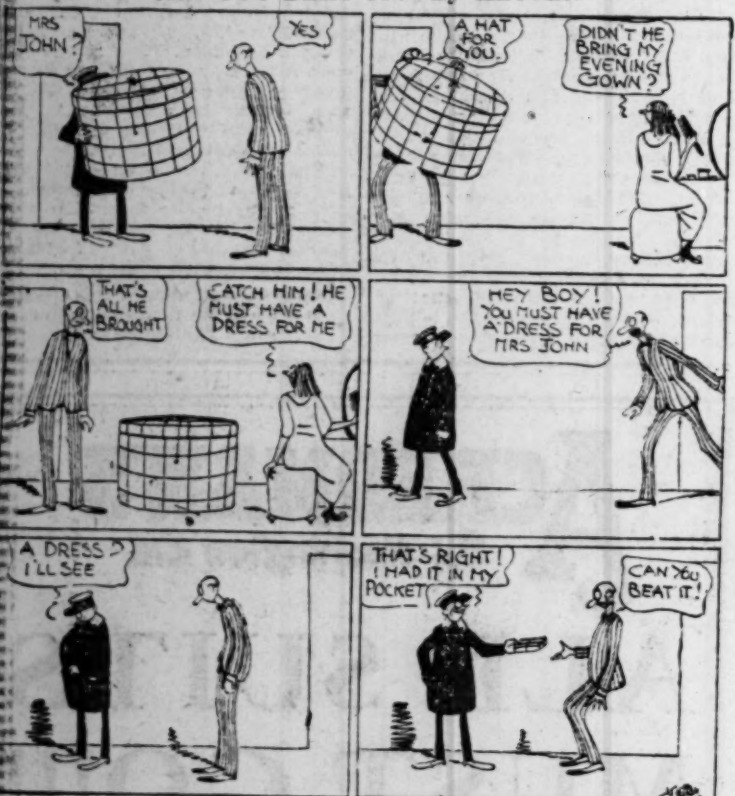

It would not be right for a Justice to show
A keen or particular fondness
For heads that display the auriferous glow
That is known to the vulgar as blondness.
But neither should Judges whose fairness of mind
Presumably got them elected,
Debar from the box any ladies whose locks
Are what we term lightly completed.

We have met many maidens, some dark and some fair,
Some dumberbells, some brilliant and clever,
And never have noticed the hue of their hair
Has made any difference whatever.
And we cannot help thinking a sinister blot
Will appear upon Justice's annals,
If because of some grudge that is nursed by a Judge
The blonds are kept off of the panels.

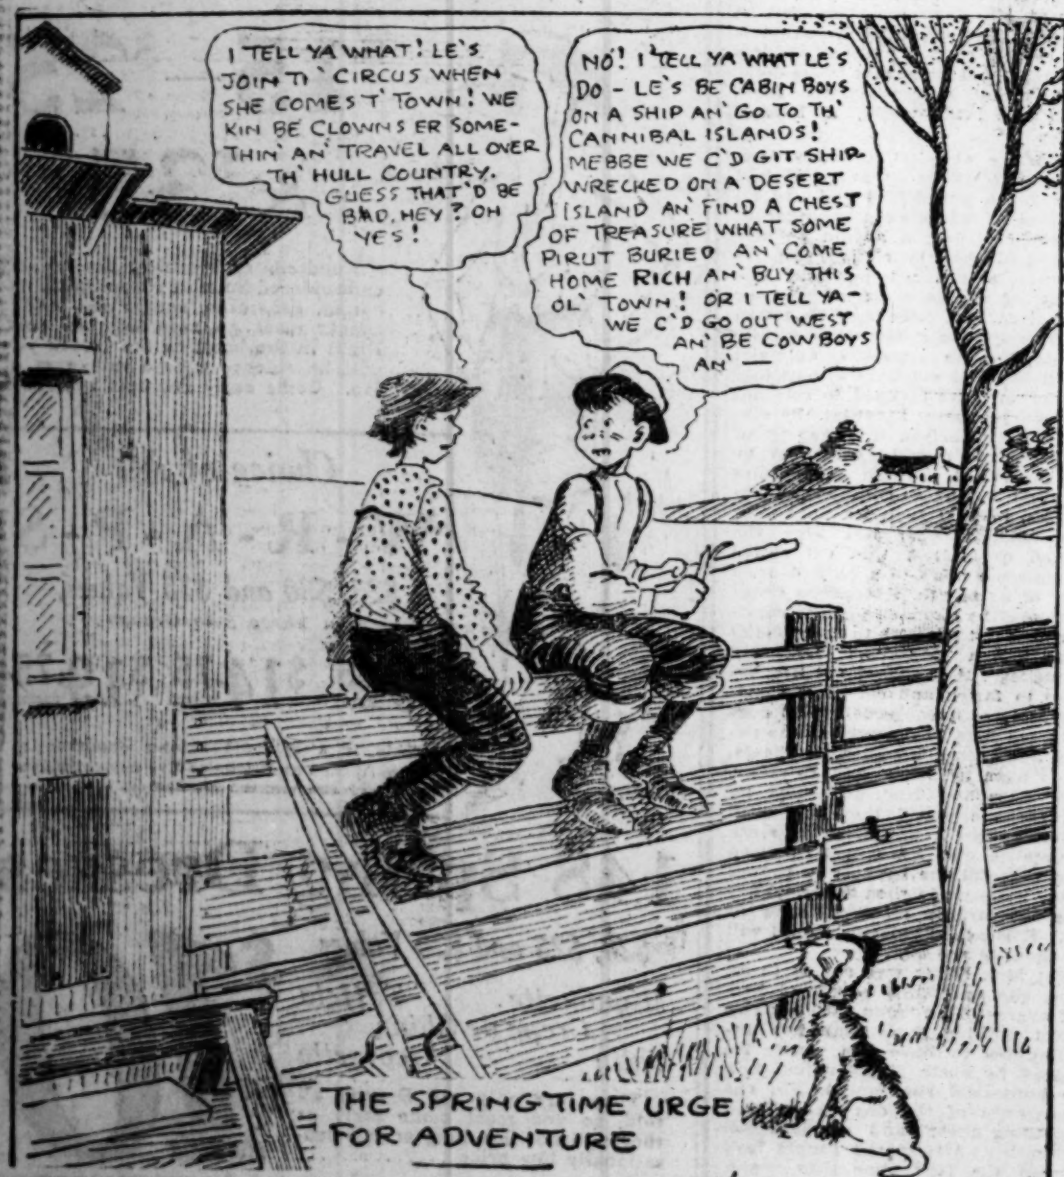

Moreover no Judge has a right to decide
The hue of a jurymaid's tresses,
While she waits in the court for the case to be tried Till he's taken a couple of guesses.
And after the jury is chosen, perhaps,
His Honor will find to his sorrow,
That the chon-haired Jones that he chose for their brains,
Will all turn to blonds by tomorrow.
